Kalsa Bhanduri Nala Scheme

3553. SHRI K.B. KRISHNA MURTHY: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Kalsa Bhanduri Nala Scheme sent by the State Government of Karnataka is pending with the Central Government for approval;

(b) if so, when the above proposal was sent;

(c) what is the estimated cost of the above proposal and the extent of land to be irrigated from the above scheme; and

(d) what is the present status of the above proposal?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI JAY PRAKASH NARAYAN YADAV): (a) to (d) The Government of Karnataka in April, 2002 requested for clearance of proposal from inter-State angle for diversion of 7.56 TMC of water from Madei basin to Malprabha basin through implementation of Kalsa and Bhandurinalla schemes to meet the drinking water needs of Hubli/Dharwad cities. The proposal was not in the form of Detailed Project Report containing the estimated cost and other details. The Ministry of Water Resources gave an 'in-principle' clearance to the proposal to meet the drinking water need of Hubli/Dharwad from water availability angle on 30th April, 2002. The Government of Goa in July, 2002 took strong exception to the grant of this clearance by the Ministry and requested for setting up of an inter-State Water Disputes Tribunal under the Inter-State water Disputes Act, 1956 for resolution of the disput. In view of this, the 'in-principle' clearance granted by the Ministry was placed 'in abeyance' in September, 2002 with a view to resolve the matter by an agreement between the two States, failing which by an award of the Tribunal. The two States have so far not concluded any agreement on the sharing of Madei Water.

Implementation of Unauthorised irrigation projects in Krishna and Godavari River Basins

3554. SHRI K.B. KRISHNA MURTHY: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) whether any all-party delegation from Karnataka has submitted any memorandum requesting the Central Government to prevent Andhra Pradesh from going ahead with the implementation of unauthorized irrigation projects in Krishna and Godavari river basins; and

(b) if so, what is the present status?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI JAY PRAKASH NARAYAN YADAV): (a) Yes, Sir. An all party delegation led by the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Karnataka, submitted a memorandum to His Excellency the President of India and the then Hon'ble Deputy Prime Minister of India in June, 2003 high lighting unilateral action on the part of the Government of Andhra Pradesh to commit use of the surplus water of Krishna by taking up permanent and large-scale water utilization projects. The State Government of Karnataka has reported about submission of another memorandum to the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India in February, 2005 during his visit to Bangalore, which also highlighted the same issues.

(b) In response to the complaints and request for apportioning of the surplus waters of Krishna among the basin States, the Government of India constituted the second Krishna Water Disputes Tribunal on 2nd April, 2004 to adudicate the disputes on sharing of Krishna Waters among the basin States in accordance with the Inter-State Water Disputes Act, 1956. The sharing of the Godavari waters among the basin States in on the basis of Godavari Water Disputes Tribunal Award, which is an
